Invite your customers to manage the store

Once you have created a store you can invite your customers to view it and manage it. On the “Users” section click on the “Invite User” option and fill in an email address of the customer you want to give access to the store. Your customers will receive an email that will ask them to register a GonnaOrder account. Once they successfully register, they immediately have access to the store you have created.

The screenshot displays the GonnaOrder admin dashboard. On the left is a sidebar menu with the following items: Orders, Catalog, Settings, Tables, Statistics, Users (highlighted), Subscription, Share & Preview, and Register new Store. The main content area shows the 'Users' section with a 'Help on Users' link and an 'Invite User' button. Below the button, the text 'Name' is followed by 'No data found'. A modal window titled 'Invite User' is open, containing the text: 'An email will be sent to the below email address. Once the user accepts the invitation he will be able to manage fully My Store.' Below this text is an 'Email' input field with the placeholder 'user@gmail.com'. At the bottom right of the modal are 'Cancel' and 'Invite' buttons, with a teal mouse cursor pointing at the 'Invite' button.

Share your vouchers to customers & let them do it themselves

It is also possible that your customers do the full or part of the process themselves. They can directly register an account, create a store and purchase a subscription. As long as they use the voucher you provided to them, they will receive a discount and you as a partner will still receive the commission.

To facilitate this process, you can print your vouchers and share with your customers a document that contains the voucher code, instructions on how to use the voucher and your contact details.
